AREQUIPA / COLCA

Arequipa is Peru's most elegant city. Its beauty and character derives from its majestic volcano, the Misti, which overlooks the city, as well as its historical center. Arequipa's incomparable colonial architecture is made out of sillar, a white volcanic stone that has kept legends and secrets from many centuries.

The Colca Valley is a natural marvel of great deepness. A narrow canyon surrounded by very old and traditional small Quechua communities, it is the perfect place to witness the flight of the condor as well as to practice outdoor sports.

NO TRIP TO PERU IS COMPLETE WITHOUT VISITING THE ENIGMATIC NAZCA LINES. THEIR GRANDEUR HAS ENDURED MORE THAN 1,000 YEARS

The beaches of the Paracas Bay, in the Pacific Ocean, shelter large communities of sea lions, seals, penguins and seabirds.
